

Student Honor Code

Students at Lumen Verum Academy are bound on their honor to abide by the following Honor Code, which they publicly sign and affirm on the first week of school:

As a scholar at Lumen Verum Academy, I pledge on my honor that I will:

- Strive to demonstrate Christ-like character, particularly in His self-giving service of others.
- Support the Catholic mission of my school, especially in its social and moral teachings.
- Speak and act honestly and respectfully in all things.
- Respectfully obey the legitimate authority of my teachers.
- Demonstrate reverence when visiting religious sites or participating in prayer.
- Genuinely seek the moral, spiritual, and intellectual good of my classmates and peers, ensuring that their lives are enriched by my presence.
- Strive for excellence in all my endeavors.
- Never give or receive unpermitted aid on academic work.
- Demonstrate proper care and stewardship of physical property and surroundings. When departing from a place, I will leave it in better condition than I found it.
- Be a courteous guest at all places I visit and a courteous host to all visitors to our school.
- Use technology only in accordance with the instructions of my teachers and parents, and never for any immoral purpose.
- Publicly represent Lumen Verum Academy with honor through my language, behavior, attire, and demeanor.
- Take an active part in seeing to it that others as well as myself uphold the spirit and letter of this Honor Code.
